Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The town of Wallace, South Dakota, is celebrating its 75th Jubilee this spring; and,

WHEREAS, After the passage of three-quarters of a century, Wallace is the center of a thriving community amidst the beautiful lakes and productive farmland of Codington County; and,

WHEREAS, Wallace deserves special recognition as the birthplace of Hubert H. Humphrey, a statesman who dedicated his life to helping all his countrymen share in the American dream; and,

WHEREAS, This Jubilee is a reflection of the enthusiasm and pride which residents and friends have for Wallace; and,

WHEREAS, The strong sentimental feelings we South Dakotans have for our towns is part of the great quality of life in our state; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to commemorate publicly those memorable and meaningful events in the lives of the citizens of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday and Sunday, June 27 and 28, 1981, as

WALLACE 75TH JUBILEE DAYS

In South Dakota, and I encourage everyone to come to Wallace and join in the festivities!

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-One

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
